

Portuguese for Foreigners

ONLINE REGULAR COURSE

Period: June 14th to September 25th
Workload: 60 class-hours (synchronous and asynchronous activities)

Meetups Tuesdays and Thursdays*

Beginner (A1): 11am to 1pm

Basic (A2): 2pm to 4pm

Intermediate (B1/B2): 11am to 1pm

* Brasília Time (UTC-3/GMT-3)

Activities

Virtual meetings through Google Classroom and Google Meet platforms and development of asynchronous tasks by students. The course program as created by teachers of UFF's Portuguese for Foreigners Department.

Syllabus

According to student's proficiency

Beginner level: Course geared towards students who have not studied Portuguese before. Aims to offer the basis to develop their linguistic knowledge through spoken language in informal and semi-formal contexts.

Basic level: Emphasis on everyday interaction, based on activities aimed at practicing the language spoken in the informal and semi-formal contexts. Writing of small texts. Focus on aspects of Brazilian culture.

Intermediate level: Emphasis on everyday interaction, based on activities aimed at practicing the language spoken in the informal, semi-formal and formal contexts. Production of textual genres of everyday life and academic life. Focus on aspects of Brazilian culture.

Cultural topics: Brazilian people and society (environment, urban space, family, work, university and leisure).

Communicative functions: introductions, greetings, questions, requests, accepting and denying requests, inviting, thanking, buying, asking for information, apologising, locating oneself, showing appreciation and dissatisfaction, desires and needs. Intermediate level also includes argue and counter-argue.

Scan to Enroll

